

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Jonathan B. Goldsmith, Esq.; Luis Burgos, and Dorian Burgos,

Appellants

v.

United States Trustee,

Appellee

2:15-cv-2473-JAD

Appeal from Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Proceedings in 12-16894-MKN

Order Granting Motion to Dismiss the Burgoses' Appeal and Amending the Caption

[ECF 6]

Jonathan B. Goldsmith, “former attorney for debtors” Luis Burgos and Dorian Burgos, filed this appeal purportedly on behalf of himself and the Burgoses to challenge various bankruptcy court orders.¹ The Burgoses² now move to dismiss their appeal because they did not intend to appeal as part of Goldsmith’s filing, and they ask that the caption be amended to reflect their removal from this case.³ I find this motion suitable for resolution without oral argument,⁴ and I find good cause to dismiss any appeal purportedly brought on behalf of the Burgoses and order their names deleted from the caption of this case.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the motion to dismiss the appeal on behalf of Luis Burgos and Dorian Burgos and correct the caption [ECF 6] is GRANTED. Luis Burgos

² Counsel for Mr. & Mrs. Burgos repeatedly and erroneously attempts to pluralize the Burgoses’ last name with an apostrophe (Burgos’) instead of an es, which makes the motion very hard to follow. An apostrophe denotes possession, not pluralization. Last names ending in an s are made plural by adding an es, not an apostrophe. See Bryan A. Garner, The Redbook, ¶ 7.7(g), 131 (3d ed. 2013) (“Do not make the common error of using an apostrophe to form the plural of a name.”).

³ ECF 6.

1 and Dorian Burgos are dismissed from this case, and the caption on any documents filed in this
2 case in the future should reflect Goldsmith and the United States Trustee as the only parties to 3 this bankruptcy appeal.
